WEEKEND EVENTS HIGHLIGHT H.S. FINE ARTS CAMP AT UM

MISSOULA--

Students participating in the Montana High School Fine Arts camp at the University of Montana from Aug 4-15 will have an opportunity this weekend and Monday to take a break from their fine arts studies.

The 203 students from Montana and several out-of-state communities are attending the 10-day camp to concentrate on music, dance, drama and art.

Noted musicians, including Zaven Melikian and Walter Green, both of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, are among the participating instructors for the camp. George D. Lewis, associate professor of music at UM, is camp director.

A record dance, featuring a psychedelic light show created by the art majors at the camp, is in store for the youths on Saturday (Aug. 9) at 9 p.m. in the University Center.

On Sunday (Aug. 10) a picnic is planned for 4 p.m. on the UM Oval for the students who board at UM during the camp.

All camp participants are invited to the "The Prague-Paris Program," two film documentaries to be presented in the Liberal Arts Building, room 11, at 8:15 p.m. Sunday. Films are entitled "Prague, the Summer of Tanks," which deals with the invasion of Czechoslovakia last August and the reactions of the Czech people, and "The Right to Speak," a film banned in France which concerns efforts of French university students to take a firm stand against the Establishment in 1968.

A camp stunt night on Monday (Aug. 11) will be a chance for "the kids to do their thing," according to Lewis. Groups of students will organize and perform skits, pantomimes and musical selections at 8:15 p.m. in the UM Music Recital Hall.
